

Training & Volunteer Application

Thank you for your interest in the Dispute Resolution Center of Montgomery County.

The DRC of Montgomery County offers equal opportunities to all volunteer applicants. It is committed to equal and fair selection procedures, without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or age.

Your application will be given every consideration but its completion does not imply you will be appointed as a volunteer by the DRC, as the screening process for volunteers is guided by the community needs of Montgomery County.

By submitting this application, I assert that the facts set forth in it are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understand that misleading or false information will constitute sufficient cause for the refusal of volunteer appointment or, if already appointed as a volunteer, termination of my volunteer assignment.

I understand that neither the acceptance of this volunteer application nor the entry into any type of volunteer relationship with the DRC of Montgomery County creates an actual or implied contract of a volunteer relationship. I understand that, if I accept a volunteer position with the DRC, it will be on an at-will basis. This means that either the DRC or I have the right to terminate the relationship at any time, for any reason, with or without advance notice.

I authorize the DRC of Montgomery County to investigate information concerning my education, employment, criminal history, and all other aspects of my background relevant to my volunteer application. I hereby release the DRC of Montgomery County and its employees from all liability arising from such investigation. I understand that passing a background check is a condition of volunteer acceptance.

Pledge of Confidentiality

I understand that as staff/intern/volunteer/contractor at the Dispute Resolution Center of Montgomery County (DRC) I will be exposed to privileged information. I understand that I must maintain the privacy and confidentiality of any and all client, intern, volunteer, contractor, employee and agency information. I recognize the value and sensitivity of confidential information and agree to protect the anonymity of the aforementioned individuals in every way possible in order to preserve what is protected by law.

Client Confidentiality

I agree not to divulge information about any client to anyone outside of the DRC. I will not acknowledge a client in public in such a way that publicizes his/her connection with the DRC. Additionally, if I should directly hear or overhear and/or suspect that someone is sharing client information in public, I will notify the Executive Director immediately in order for the situation to be rectified and for the DRC to preserve client confidentiality.

The DRC understands and agrees that by law, there is an obligation to disclose confidential information to the appropriate authorities in situations that involve child abuse, elder abuse, and threats of harm toward others. If this situation occurs during the course of my responsibilities as staff, intern, volunteer, or contractor, I will notify the Executive Director as soon as possible.

Team Confidentiality

I understand how important it is not to disclose my own personal information or that of any other intern, volunteer, contractor, employee or any other person affiliated with the DRC. I pledge to hold all information (verbal, written, or computerized) in the strictest confidence with regards to anyone affiliated with the DRC and will not disclose any information to any third party.

I understand and agree to keep all client, intern, volunteer, contractor, employee and agency information confidential for an indefinite period of time, even after I am no longer with the DRC.

It has been explained to me how serious it is to violate this Pledge of Confidentiality and that I will be held accountable for any harm that results from any such indiscretion.

It is understood that my relationship with the DRC may be terminated and further action could be taken by the Board of Directors if this occurs.

I have read the above Pledge of Confidentiality and affirm that I will abide by this agreement.
